The Golden Boys* (formerly known as Chatham) celebrates it's official release

Cape Cod, MA, April 6, 2009 -- Written by local director Dan Adams and filmed entirely on Cape Cod, The Golden Boys (formerly known as 'Chatham') will be officially released nationwide on April 17th, 2009. The film will be screened locally at Regal Cinemas at the Cape Cod Mall in Hyannis.

The film is a romantic comedy, set on Cape Cod in 1905, about three 70-year-old retired sea captains who try to lure an attractive middle-aged woman into marrying one of them. Starring an all-star cast, David Carradine, Bruce Dern, Rip Torn and Mariel Hemingway, The Golden Boys was the highest grossing film in over 70 years during it's impressive test screening at Cape Cinema in 2008.

CapeCodMovieMakers.com (a subsidiary of Cape Cod Public Relations) is encouraging Cape residents to support local films and attend The Golden Boys the weekend of April 17th, in an effort to increase distribution.

Opening weekend (April 17+18), one lucky member of the audience will win a day on the set of Dan Adams' new film "The Lightkeepers," a romantic comedy starring Richard Dreyfus, Blythe Danner and Martin Sheen. Drawings will be held at the Regal Cinemas, Cape Cod Mall, during the first evening screening (7 o'clock hour); the winning name will be drawn during the show.

Hearth n' Kettle Restaurants is partnering with CapeCodMovieMakers.com to present 'Local Film, Local Food', offering a free cup of chowder in exchange for ticket stubs from the film.

Lastly, the Director and Cast are available to all media for interviews. Inquiries should be addressed to Cape Cod Public Relations.

About The Golden Boys:

A romantic comedy set in 1905 on Cape Cod, Massachusetts, "The Golden Boys" is the story of three retired sea captains who keep house together as a way to moderate the loneliness of their retirements. As the story begins, chaos reigns in the house; dirty dishes, dust and disorder have become their bane. Together they hatch a plan to solve the problem: they flip coins, and the loser must get married and take the other two in as boarders. The three captains are Zebulon "Zeb" Hedge (DAVID CARRADINE), Perez Ryder (BRUCE DERN), and Jeremiah ("Jerry") Burgess (RIP TORN). Jerry loses the coin toss, and they run an advertisement in a Boston newspaper to entice a prospective bride (MARIEL HEMINGWAY).
